One Million Messages to Starbucks...

BACKGROUND

"Starbucks' new CEO, Laxman Narasimhan, will be entering his fourth week on the job, which puts us at a pivotal moment to use our collective power to call on him to clean up Starbucks' reputation by ending the company's scorched-earth union-busting campaign, build a healthy relationship with baristas, and work together with Starbucks Workers United.

On Tuesday, April 11, 2023, Starbucks Workers United, allied organizations and global labor partners will host a day of action that spans the globe in a massive show of support for Starbucks workers fighting for a seat at the table by sending a million messages to the company."

EDUCATORS' UNIONS GO ON STRIKE!

RUTGERS
AAUP-AFT

American Association of University Professors
American Federation of Teachers • AFL-CIO

On Monday, April 10th, the Rutgers educators' unions went on strike. In an email to their members the unions say this,

"We have been bargaining for a new contract for nearly a year. This entire time, the administration has delayed and obstructed our efforts to reach an agreement..."

The administration doesn't understand that we are determined to fight together for equal pay for equal work, a living wage for all, real job security, race and gender equity, and a fair salary increase. We have no other choice than to go on strike to build a university that truly values its workers and its students."

Please keep IN4WS board member, Marilyn Sneiderman, her colleagues, and the unions in your thoughts and prayers.
